Amberley Primary School

Equalities Information and Objectives

Statement of principles

This policy outlines the commitment of the staff and governors to promote equality. This involves tackling the barriers which could lead to unequal outcomes so that there is equality of access and the diversity within the school community is celebrated and valued.

We believe that equality at our school should permeate all aspects of school life and is the responsibility of every member of the school and wider community. Every member of the school community should feel safe, secure, valued and of equal worth. At Amberley Primary School, equality is a key principle for treating all people the same irrespective of their gender, ethnicity, disability, religious beliefs/faith tradition, sexual orientation, age or any other of the protected characteristics (Equality Act 2010).

This policy has been drawn up as a result of discussion within a working party and then reviewed in consultation with staff, pupils, parents, and governors before being shared with the whole school community.

As a church school we identify Christian Values that underpin the whole school and the wider community. These values inform our school's vision, aims and ethos. The values that relate particularly to this policy are thankfulness, friendship, love and trust.

Monitoring and Review

The Headteacher will be responsible for Equalities and co-ordinating the monitoring and evaluation. The Head Teacher will be responsible for:

- providing updates on equalities legislation and the school's responsibilities;
- working closely with the governor responsible for this area who is the Chair of Governors;
- supporting evaluation activities to monitor the impact and success of the policy on pupils from different, traditionally disadvantaged, groups, e.g SEN, children in care, people from Black Minority Ethnic (BME) groups and Free School Meals, in the following recommended areas:
 - Pupils' progress and attainment
 - Behaviour and exclusions
 - Attendance
 - Incidents of discrimination and all forms of bullying
 - Participation in extra-curricular activities
 - Staff recruitment and retention
 - Visits and visitors

Policy Commitments

Promoting Equality: Curriculum

We aim to provide all our pupils with the opportunity to succeed. To achieve this, we will ensure:

- curriculum planning reflects a commitment to equality;
- the curriculum prepares pupils for life in a diverse society and uses opportunities to reflect the background and experience of pupils and families in the school;
- opportunities in the curriculum to explore concepts and issues related to identity and equality;
- the promotion of attitudes and values that celebrate and respect diversity and challenge discriminatory behaviour and language wherever it occurs;

- the use of images and materials which positively reflect a range of cultures, identities and lifestyles.

Promoting Equality: Achievement

There is a consistently high expectation of all pupils regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, ability, social background and sexual orientation. To secure the best possible outcomes we recognise that:

- adults in school will be expected to provide good, positive role models in their approach to all issues relating to equality of opportunity;
- it is important to identify the particular needs of individuals and groups within the school and to use targeted interventions to narrow gaps in achievement;
- a range of teaching methods is used throughout the school to ensure that effective learning takes place at all stages for all pupils.
- all pupils are actively encouraged to engage fully pupils in their own learning.

Promoting Equality: The ethos and culture of the school

Our motto at Amberley Primary School is 'Children at the heart of our unique community.'

- we are aware that the leaders of the school community are instrumental in demonstrating mutual respect between all members of the school community;
- we strive to make the school welcoming to everyone through openness and tolerance;
- our children are encouraged to greet visitors to the school with friendliness and respect;
- the displays around the school reflect diversity across aspects of equality;
- reasonable adjustments will be made to ensure access for pupils, staff and visitors (including parents) with disabilities (this not only includes physical access, but takes account wider access to school information and activities);
- provision is made to cater for the cultural, moral and spiritual needs of all children through planning of collective worship, classroom and off-site activities;
- pupils' views are actively encouraged and respected. Pupils are given an effective voice through the School Council and pupil questionnaires;
- positive role models are encouraged to participate in the life of the school.

Promoting Equality: Staff recruitment and professional development

- all posts are advertised formally and open to the widest pool of applicants;
- all those involved in recruitment and selection are trained and aware of what they should do avoid discrimination to ensure equality of opportunity;
- equalities policy and practice is covered in all staff inductions;
- regular supply staff and contractors are made aware of the equalities policy and practice;
- employment policy and procedures are reviewed regularly to check conformity with legislation and the impact of policies are kept under regular review.

Promoting Equality: Countering and challenging harassment and bullying

- the school counters and challenges all types of discriminatory behaviour and this is made clear to staff, pupils, parents and governors;
- the school has a clear, agreed procedure for dealing with prejudice related bullying incidents and the headteacher is responsible for recording and monitoring incidents;
- the school reports regularly to governors on any prejudice or bullying related incidents recorded in the school log.

Promoting Equality: Partnerships

We aim to work in partnership with parents/carers by:

- taking action to ensure all parents/carers are encouraged to participate in the life of the school;
- maintaining good channels of communication, e.g. through parent forums, to ensure parents' views are captured to inform practice;
- encouraging members of the local community to join in school activities and celebrations;
- ensuring that the parents/carers of children in 'vulnerable groups' or pupils with disabilities are made to feel welcome.

Responsibility for the Policy

All members of the school community have a responsibility for promoting equalities.

The Governing Body has responsibility for ensuring that:

- the school complies with all relevant equalities legislation;
- the school's Equalities Policy is reviewed annually and that equality schemes are easily identifiable (these may be included within the School Improvement Plan, the school's Accessibility Plan or may be stand alone documents);
- the actions, procedures and strategies related to the policy are implemented;
- they have an overview of all prejudice related incidents or incidents which are a breach of this policy and ensure that appropriate action is taken in relation to these incidents.

The Headteacher and Senior Leadership team has responsibility for:

- providing leadership and vision in respect of equality, in partnership with the governing body;
- overseeing and managing the implementation of the equality policy and schemes;
- co-ordinating the activities related to equality and evaluating impact;
- ensuring that adults who enter the school are aware of, and comply with, the equalities policy;
- ensuring that staff are aware of their responsibilities and are given relevant training and support;
- taking appropriate action in response to any prejudice-related incidents.

All school staff have responsibility for:

- the implementation of the school's equalities policy and schemes;
- dealing with incidents of discrimination and knowing how to identify and challenge bias and stereotyping;
- ensuring they do not discriminate on grounds of ethnicity and culture, disability, sexual orientation or by any other protected characteristic;
- following the terms of any equalities legislation.

Measuring the Impact of this Policy

The equalities policy and all other relevant policies will be evaluated and monitored for their equality impact on pupils, staff, parents and carers from the different groups that make up our school. The main findings from equality impact assessments will be published for the school community.

Amberley Parochial Primary School EQUALITIES INFORMATION

Autumn Term 2018 (Annual review due Autumn Term 2022)

The Public Sector Equality Duty 2011 has three aims under the general duty for schools:

1. Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act. By removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people due to their protected characteristics.
2. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not. By taking steps to meet the needs of people from protected groups where these are different from the needs of other people
3. Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not. By encouraging people from protected groups to participate in public life or in other activities where their participation is disproportionately low.

Our School has considered how well we currently achieve these aims with regard to the eight protected equality groups: race/disability/sex/gender reassignment/age/pregnancy and maternity/religion and belief and sexual orientation.

Amberley Primary School is committed to:

- Dealing with and eliminating prejudiced based incidents
- Closing the gap in attainment for all children
- Engagement with local communities

- Policies and practices that promote equality and address inequities
